

Curriculum vitae

Olga Redda

Born 1981 in Siemianowice, Poland

Nationality: German

Second authorised representative and managing director, IG Metall Regensburg residing in Neumarkt

Education

2001 – 2007 Law studies with first state examination, Freie Universität Berlin

2004 – 2006 Graduate course in Polish Law, Humboldt-Universität, Berlin

2007 – 2010 Practical law training in Frankfurt an der Oder, Brandenburg Higher Regional Court, with second state examination

Professional experience

2010 Legal advice, DGB/Arbeit und Leben

2010 – 2011 Attorney at law, Dr. Köhler und Partner law firm, Berlin

2011 – 2013 Traineeship, IG Metall

2013 – 2018 Trade union secretary, IG Metall, Regensburg

Since 2018 Deputy member of the Administrative Committee, Regensburg Employment Agency

Since 2018 Second authorised representative and managing director, IG Metall Regensburg

Coordination of SME collective bargaining policy (workplace agreements and ‘recognition’ agreements)

Membership in other statutory supervisory boards in Germany:

Member of the Supervisory Board, OSRAM Licht AG, OSRAM GmbH and ams OSRAM International GmbH

Member of the Executive Committee, ams OSRAM International GmbH

Member of the Supervisory Board and Executive Committee, Maschinenfabrik Reinhausen, Regensburg

Membership in comparable domestic and foreign monitoring bodies of business enterprises:

– None –

Other material activities

– None –